

Sample Documents for DocuSign Packet

Once you submit the Work-Study New Hire Form, you'll be routed a DocuSign packet via email. This DocuSign will ask you to sign the Federal Work-Study Student Employment Contract and it will require you (or your supervisor) to submit the following documents:

1. Federal Work-Study Eligibility Notification

Students can get their notification in their Handshake account or by going to this site directly: <http://vcsaweb.ucr.edu/wswf/>. Next, upload the saved copy into the DocuSign under the attachment icon labeled as Work Study Eligibility Notification.

The image shows a sample document titled "20 - 21 FWS NOTIFICATION" from the Office of Financial Aid at UCR. The document is a notification letter for the 2020-2021 academic year. It includes the UCR logo and the Office of Financial Aid name. The main content is enclosed in a blue-bordered box and contains the following text:

2020 - 2021 FEDERAL WORK STUDY ELIGIBILITY NOTIFICATION

NAME: Last Name, First Name
SID: 862XXXXXX

UCR's Financial Aid Office has confirmed that you received a Federal Work Study allocation to help cover your college expenses.

Your Federal Work Study allocation for the 2020-2021 year is: $2,000.00.

Please note that this letter is only a notice of your Federal Work Study allocation. You will need to provide a copy of this notice during your interview.

When you are hired with a federal work study job, you will need to upload: (1) a copy of this notice and (2) a copy of your job description. Refer to the "Work Study Process" webpage for complete instructions. Once processed, you and your supervisor will receive a Letter of Clearance. You must await the Letter of Clearance to start working. This process may take up to 15 days.

Additionally, based on your Federal Work Study eligibility and eligibility requirements specified by the California Department of Social Services, you may be eligible for CalFresh benefits. CalFresh can help you cover your food expenses while you are in college. We encourage you to apply to receive this valuable benefit that could help make your college expenses more affordable. For more information, visit UCR's Basic Needs website.

Please retain this letter as verification of your eligibility for, and receipt of, a Work Study allocation and for CalFresh eligibility purposes.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

E-mail the Financial Aid Office at finaid@ucr.edu for any questions about your Federal Work Study allocation. Contact the Career Center at careercounseling@ucr.edu for assistance in your job search.

2. Handshake Job Posting

Depending on how the Work-Study New Hire Form was filled out, either the student or the supervisor will need to upload a copy of the job description as was posted in Handshake. It must say that it is a work study position in the job title.

FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM
Letter of Clearance

DATE: _____
TO: _____
Account: _____ / _____
RE: LETTER OF CLEARANCE

has completed the necessary employment papers for participation in the Federal Work-Study Program and is cleared to begin working for your agency.

The above student is currently eligible to earn a maximum of _____ gross, _____ hours (subject to change), for the entire #Error academic year (). Do Not allow the student to work beyond this allocation, nor permit the student to work for more than 19 hours a week during school sessions nor over 39 hours during any vacation period (Winter & Spring break). The agency shall be responsible for payment of 100% of wages earned in excess of the allocation above. Once the allocation has been exceeded you may continue to have the student work, but you will need to pick them up on your payroll. A student that has been dismissed or has withdrawn from the University is not eligible for Federal Work-Study so the employer must pay 100% of wages earned. Students cannot be paid for holidays, sick leave or vacation time.

Students are paid by the university on a Bi Weekly schedule. Students will submit hours worked to <http://timesheet.ucr.edu> using their Net ID and password. Students will print their timesheet; submit to their supervisor for approval by the due date for each pay period. These dates are reflected on Exhibit "C" given to each student, employer and is located on the Financial Aid home page. Off-Campus Supervisors will then submit authorized, signed timesheets by email to Workstudy@ucr.edu on each due date (https://accounting.ucr.edu/sites/g/files/rcwecm2441/files/2020-07/ucr_payroll_and_tars_2020_calendar-bw_employees_7-8-20.pdf).

Statement of Account - For Work-Study positions that require payment of 25%-50% of the student's salary, the "Statement of Account" will be sent to you no later than the 20th of each month for payment of your organization's share of compensation from the previous month. Payments MUST be made monthly.

Employers need to be certain their employees understand their responsibilities. If, for any reason, employment is terminated, please notify the Financial Aid Office in writing as soon as possible.
